Specially Designed Instruction
Specially-Designed Instruction

“What is required is that the IEP include information about the amount of services the child, so that the level of the agency’s commitment of resources will be clear to parents and other IEP Team members. The amount of time to be committed to each of the various services to be provided must be appropriate to the specific service, and clearly stated in the IEP in a manner that can be understood by all involved in the development and implementation of the IEP.”

[Federal Register comments {9300.320(a)7} August 2006]

Listing “special education” as a statement of special education and related services does not meet the requirement set forth in the regulations. IEP Teams must document each area of specially designed instruction that aligns with the IEP goals and is to be provided to the student. Special education documented as a service on the IEP will result in a monitoring violation and a finding of noncompliance in formal state complaints regarding the development of an IEP based on a student’s unique needs.

DPI Memo: April 20, 2015
Re: Specially-Designed Instruction: Documenting on the IEP
Questions and Answers
CPI

1) Is CPI the only option for a Non-violent Crisis Intervention program?
Regional Director/Coordinator
Meetings

2) Would it be possible to rotate the location of our regional meetings? (Many of us are willing to host and have facilities that can accommodate the group).

3) Could the regional meetings be split into two parts? One part, whole group and one part like groups?
4) There seems to be conflicting information regarding the DEC 5 and 7-10 days before implementation of the IEP. Could this be clarified?
5) How are districts documenting students with SLD and Math sequence exemption in the Future Ready Course of Study, referenced in the memo dated 8/24/16?

- If the student takes Math I and Math II are we then documenting that the grade does not count but the student is given credit for the course??
- Would these students who are not successful in Math I be held accountable to take and pass Math I before moving to Math II?
6) Are we required by DPI to hold a re-evaluation to complete an FBA or can we document parent consent in the IEP?

– If we can document in the IEP - which section is used for the documentation?
7) What should we do when a home school or private school cannot/will not provide intervention data or is unable to provide acceptable intervention data, when we are considering initial eligibility for categories that require interventions as an eligibility component?
