

EXTENDED CONTENT STANDARD EXPECTATIONS

Directions: Answer the following questions about the 2017 Extended Content Standards.

1. All of the following are true EXCEPT:
 - a. A writing team developed a draft of the changes to the Extended Content Standards.
 - b. The writing team reviewed data, research, and changes to SCOS Standards to inform the changes.
 - c. The standards did not go out for public comment.
 - d. The NC State Board of Education approved the final draft of the 2017 Extended Content Standards.

2. The Extended Content Standards were changed in all of the following ways EXCEPT:
 - a. More examples were added to explain what the standard means.
 - b. Some standards were omitted, others were integrated.
 - c. The language within the standards was simplified.
 - d. Standards were written to be clearer and more concise.

3. In the Foundational Skills strand, handwriting may include the following?
 - a. A traditional pencil
 - b. A keyboard
 - c. An alphabet flip chart
 - d. All of the above

4. In order to read the expectations for Language Standards 1 and 2 the reader should:
 - a. look up the terms in a dictionary.
 - b. go to a separate document.
 - c. look at the Standard Course of Study expectations.
 - d. go to the end of the language standards and find the continuums.

5. All of the following changes were made to the Mathematics Extended Content Standards EXCEPT:
 - a. Language was simplified.
 - b. Teachers no longer are required to teach geometry.
 - c. Functions and Number Systems were added to the 8th grade.
 - d. Clarified that numbers should be taught in context.