Announcing: Upcoming ALP Socials!

The Artist Link Project is organizing a series of events designed to nourish creativity and explore our Triangle cultural arts scene!

- August 15 7:00pm - Imurj, RALEIGH - Join us for Imurj's Just Make Something, a relaxing community get together that takes place leading up to and during Tuesday evening performances. Gather around the round table of art supplies, crafts, and art scraps to make zero-stakes art with your creative peers. Build community relationships and share your stories over a drink or two while listening to local performers. Bring supplies to donate to Imurj's community pool of art and craft supplies. The more we pool together, the more we can create! No entry fee, no worries, no pressure. Just Make Something!

- September 10, 2:30pm - NC Museum of Natural Sciences, RALEIGH - Join us for a tour of Race: Are We So Different? This exhibition looks at race through the lens of science, history, and personal experiences to promote a better understanding of human variation. Interactive exhibit components, historical artifacts, iconic objects, compelling photographs, multimedia presentations, and attractive graphic displays offer visitors to RACE an eye-opening look at its important subject matter. RACE tells the stories of race from the biological, cultural, and historical points of view offering an unprecedented look at race and racism in the United States.

The Cary Theater Supports NC Filmmakers with Screening Opportunities

The Cary Theater offers independent films, music, and live performance including comedy and improv to citizens of the Town of Cary and the wider Triangle. They are also an ardent supporter of local artists, from musicians to comedians. Now, The Cary Theater is calling for local filmmakers to screen their films as a part of a series hosted by the theater.

Rough Cuts Review is an opportunity for filmmakers to show Rough Cuts of works-in-progress on the Big Screen, and to engage in conversation with other local filmmakers and the public about the material. Accepted are 15-20 minute submissions of finished films, works-in-progress, and student films. All genres are welcome. Time permitting, longer works may be screened, but screening spots of more than 20 are not guaranteed.

Don't forget about the VSA's LEAD and/or Intersections Conferences! There is still time, but not much! (Registration ends July 30.)

Intersections: Arts and Special

Education Conference, which is scheduled for August 6 - 7 in Austin, TX. This conference provides professionals in the intersecting field of arts education and special education the opportunity to share current information in research practice, programs, and policy, and resources and knowledge, help to develop best practices, and experience accessibility in action!

serve as a leading catalyst for change.

Playwriting for Veterans!

The Cary Playwrights' Forum will hold FREE Playwriting Workshops for Veterans, every Thursday during the month of August. This is an opportunity for current and former veterans to learn the fundamentals of dramatic structure, character and plot development, and how to prepare a work for submission. Instructor, Ian Finley, is an award-winning playwright and former Piedmont Laureate. Register via email at lydia@caryplaywrightsforum.org.

If you have been searching for an artistic medium through which to tell your story, join the Cary Playwrights and find your audience!
