

Master of Arts in Special Education

Are you looking for a way to become a fully licensed Special Education Teacher?
Project PETAC offers you that option!

- ◇ Federal Grant Scholarships and Stipends
- ◇ Support and Training

Admission Requirements

- Possess a high degree of motivation and commitment to be an advocate for best educational practices for students with disabilities.
- Bachelor of Science (BS) or Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree from a regionally accredited college or university
- Cumulative grade point average of 2.80 or higher from the undergraduate/graduate degree-granting institution
- Complete all NCA&T graduate school admissions procedures:
 - 1) Criminal background check from county of residency
 - 2) Graduate College e Application
 - 3) Official transcripts from all colleges and/or universities attended
 - 4) Three Letters of recommendations
 - 5) Written personal statement of intent
 - 6) Application fee

- ◇ Cohort Program
- ◇ Non-Traditional Students
- ◇ Night & Online Courses

Additional Requirements

- May currently hold a position in local school district working with students with and without disabilities but may not hold a clear teaching license
- (Lateral entry teachers may apply)
- Must have a position in a special education classroom while in the program
- Must commit to teach special education according to agreement to receive funding. (Based on federal guidelines)

Application Deadline JUNE 1
Apply through the Graduate College
<http://www.ncat.edu/tgc/index.html>

Project PETAC Co-Coordinator
Nicole Dobbins, Ph.D.
College of Education
Department of Educator Preparation
Proctor Hall 276
North Carolina A & T State University
nwdobbin@ncat.edu
336-285-4413

Project PETAC Co-Coordinator
Dawn Waegerle, Ed.D.
College of Education
Department of Educator Preparation
Proctor Hall 249
Greensboro, NC 27401
waegerle@ncat.edu
336-285-4429

1601 E. MARKET STREET,
GREENSBORO, NC, 27411
336.334.7847